News Blood Donation to SAIS Alumnus and Other Corporate Donors 19 Feb 09 Mon 03 Mar 2020 - - - IATA has announced that through April 18, 2020, IATA's Corporate Donors program has matched more than $9.2 million in corporate match, half of which came from companies connected to the aviation and travel industries, as a result of their individual, and sometimes collective, engagement with the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) and IATA. This is a great example of companies doing the right thing, and IATA is proud to be an integral part of the aviation industry's global response to COVID-19 and building a safer, smarter aviation system for all. Vows To Restore PA's Nuclear Missile Sites This is an archived article and the information in the article may be outdated. Please look at the time stamp on the story to see when it was last updated. HARRISBURG, Pa. (CNN) — State-owned nuclear facilities in southeastern Pennsylvania would be returned to the federal government and private sector to safeguard against state and local budget cuts, a former nuclear weapons weapons engineer said. "We didn't work the life out of that," Robert Keaton said about Pennsylvania's nuclear weapons plants. And he's pretty sure there's more oil in the world's shale fields. "Our plants were great, and I think they still are great," Keaton said. The 67-year-old Keaton sat behind a desk at the state-owned William S. Greene Institute for Energy and
