References Category:Musical softwareQ: What is the preferred way to attach and configure an external USB RFID tag reader? I've been using a PC Card reader for about a year but have now found a programmable USB RFID reader - in particular, the Anobit UDX2800. It comes with a little adapter which plugs into the USB port (it's USB->LPT) and then it plugs into the laptop I'm using. The documentation says to plug the
